The Brolga Room

Discover the perfect venue for your next business event in the heart of the Yarra Valley at Healesville Sanctuary, just one hour from Melbourne.

Set amidst Australian native flora and fauna, the Brolga Room with a private garden offers a unique space that blends rustic charm with modern amenities, including state-of-the-art audio-visual equipment.

The versatile seating options accommodate up to 100 guests, allowing for various configurations. The room is filled with natural light and features air-con and heating controlled to your liking. In the warmer months, step through the floor-to-ceiling sliding doors and into the garden. When it's cooler, a roaring open fire creates a cosy atmosphere for your event. With our dedicated catering and events team, every detail of your event will be seamless.

By booking with us, you and your delegates will have the opportunity to participate in unique experiences, such as the "Race Around the Zoo" challenge and exclusive Sanctuary tours, making for unforgettable corporate gatherings that support Zoos Victoria's mission to fight extinction.

Join us at Healesville Sanctuary and make your next conference, meeting, or team day not only unforgettable but also meaningful.
